Snap!

MITE fun
Look back at the story.
What do bugs do?

They buzz. They hiss. They jump.

Did you spot me?

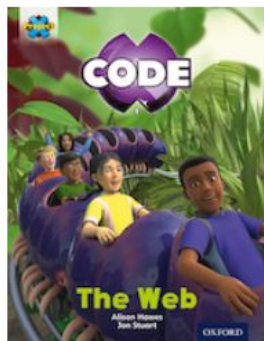

- First text is fully decodable and the second is 80% decodable using the phonemes and common exception words practiced at the start of the session.
- ‘Now you have read..’ designed to strengthen speaking and listening skills and build vocabulary and comprehension skills.

Online Access

Once a book has been completed, it will be set for home learning on a Friday meaning the children are able to continue to practice the skills they have been learning in school.
