Respect. Aspire. Resilient

Dear Parents and carers,

Our Sports Day was a fantastic success, full of energy, teamwork, and fun. The children took part in a range of events including races, relays, and tug of war, showing great determination and enthusiasm.

Highlights included exciting relay races and strong team spirit throughout the day. Congratulations to all participants. A big thank you to staff, volunteers, and families for their support in making the day so special. Well done everyone—we look forward to next year!

Well done

Over the Bank Holiday weekend, Archie attended the Bushcraft Show, where he took part in a full-day “Get Up, Get Out, Get Wild” session with BushKiddz.

During the session, he completed his first 10 challenges of the Fabulous Forty Challenge—plus a few extra—earning his Beginner Bushcraft Award. He learned key skills including shelter building, fire lighting, outdoor cooking, and more.

Happy Friday everyone.

And bam! Welcome to Summer Term 2. This term has a habit of bursting through the door, grinning from ear to ear, with a calendar packed full of end-of-year reports, celebrations, school performances, transition visits, trips and, this week, Sports Day.

Ah, Sports Day. Mrs Wildey has fond memories of her own school Sports Days and, even though I considered myself something of an Olympic-level discus thrower, Sports Day was always about much more than sport.

Sports Day teaches us about developing emotional strength and learning that resilience is not about always succeeding; it is about having the confidence to keep going when something feels difficult. That courage does not always look like winning a race. Sometimes it looks like simply stepping onto the field, joining in, or cheering on a friend.

As adults, it can be easy to focus on results, but confidence grows when children feel valued for their effort, kindness and perseverance, whatever the outcome. As we move through this busy and exciting half-term, let's remember that growth often happens in the small, quiet moments of bravery that may not earn a medal, but will last far longer.
