Respect. Aspire. Resilient

Dear Parents and carers,

Thank you to all parents and carers for your patience and understanding during this week's unusual arrangements due to the exceptionally hot weather. We are grateful for your support and flexibility, which has helped us keep the children safe, comfortable, and happy throughout the week.

Thank you for your continued cooperation and support. We hope you all have a lovely weekend.

Student Spotlight

On Sunday 21 June, at Thornden Hall, Daniel (year 5) and Alice (year 4) took part in the Hampshire County Youth Wind Ensembles' Summer Concert. In front of a packed house in sweltering heat they played three pieces of music with the Hampshire Double Reed Centre - the training group for the Hampshire Double Reed Ensemble. Double reed instruments (oboe, cor anglais and bassoon) are increasingly rare instruments for people to play but Daniel (oboe) and Alice (bassoon) are bucking the trend and enjoying themselves in the process!

We wish all of our families a lovely long weekend.

Best wishes,

Miss Woolken

Head Teacher

Mrs Wildey's Magic words

As beads of sweat gather on the brow of Mrs. Wildey, she has been pondering over our fascination with the weather. Us Brits in particular LOVE to talk about the weather, and moreover, complain about it. But this week has been a bit hot, hasn't it.

And there is a psychological reason for feeling particularly disgruntled with that. Our brains and bodies are constantly working to maintain balance – something called homeostasis. When temperatures rise, our brain is working overtime to keep us cool- meaning we often have less left over for focus, patience, and emotional regulation.

In short: when we're too hot, our capacity shrinks. This is normal, it's expected, and it goes some way to explain why children can seem more dysregulated, adults more irritable, and little frustrations suddenly feel much bigger.

So, if this week has felt harder, slower or heavier than usual, there may be nothing wrong with you at all....it is just very, very melty! And a reminder, sometimes self-care looks like slowing down, resting when possible, drinking more water, and giving ourselves (and each other) a little extra grace.

...whose consumption of cheese has been temporarily replaced with ice pops.

NBJS Community and Well-being Partnership

We would like to invite parents and carers to our next SEN and Mental Health 'coffee and catch-up' afternoon on:

Tuesday 30th June: 1:30pm – 3:00pm @ NBJS

These sessions will provide an opportunity to share and discuss general issues around SEN and Mental Health, with the aim of providing our community with the resources they need to navigate an everchanging, and sometimes overwhelming, landscape.

Miss. Verlander, Mrs. Jonas and Mrs. Wildey look forward to welcoming you all!

Please look out for the parentmail that follows, allowing you to register your interest in attending this event
