

Maths resources

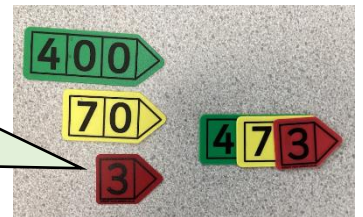

The importance of Maths resources and manipulatives cannot be overlooked. Resources and manipulatives help to secure children's understanding of a range of different mathematical concepts.

Squared whiteboards
.Ideal for ensuring clear layout and transferable to Maths books.

Arrow Cards. Very good for partitioning of numbers.

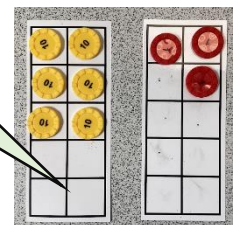

Structured and unstructured number lines.

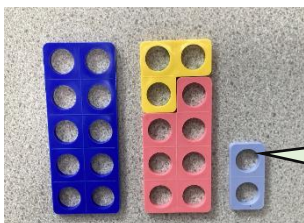

Tens frames and place value counters. These form the basis of the resources from the Number Stacks intervention.

Bead string showing multiples of 10. Ones to 20 and ones to 100.

Numicon. To understand numbers and relationships.

Dienes. For place value and calculations work. .

Place value counters. For place value and calculations work. .

